

SIUSLAW PUBLIC LIBRARY

APPLICATION FOR DISPLAYING ARTS, CRAFTS, AND COLLECTIONS

The library regularly exhibits art and crafts in its galleries and display cases. To help us make our selections, we request that you submit three (3) photographs representative of the items you wish to show. Photos will remain the property of the library.

Exhibits normally consist of up to 40 pieces depending on the size and the gallery. Exhibits can be one-person shows, or they can be group showings of two or more artists. When you apply, please indicate whether you would be able to mount a one-person show or would prefer to be paired with others.

If you are scheduled to exhibit, you are encouraged to host a reception that allows the public to “meet the artist.” In the past, individual artists have sent out invitations to several dozen people, publicized the reception in the local media, served simple refreshments, and even had live music. Such events are organized and paid for by the artists themselves. The library is able to provide the use of the room free of charge. The room must be booked in advance. Attendance at previous receptions has been good. This activity is, of course, strictly optional.

To help you plan a possible show, photos and dimensions of the hanging space of the library galleries are included in this application. Photos and dimensions of the display cases are also included. There will be a representative from the Library’s Art Committee to help you put up your show.

Artists displaying work in the Siuslaw Public Library must agree to save and hold harmless the said Siuslaw Public Library from any and all loss, damage, or destruction. When artwork is brought to the library, the parties will sign an agreement noting the responsibilities of the library and artist. The library will, of course, exercise all care in the handling of your work.

The Art Display committee complies with the Siuslaw Public Library Art Display Policy and uses some of the following criteria in evaluating artwork.

- Nothing morally objectionable or pornographic
- No prices are on display
- No partisan political candidates and/or parties
- There are enough items to fill the space
- The library adheres to the ALA bill of rights
- The theme is acceptable as art

The Art Display Committee and the library director reserve the right to make final decisions about the items to be exhibited.

The Committee greatly appreciates your interest in displaying your work in the library. If you have any questions, call Meg Spencer at 997-3132. The mailing address for the main branch is 1460 9th St., Florence, OR 97439.
