The Siuslaw Public Library District recognizes, welcomes, and appreciates the many ways that volunteers help the library staff provide services to the community and carry out the library's mission.

Definition of Volunteer

Volunteers provide supplemental, special, or unusual services as specified by the Volunteer Coordinator.

Policy

1. The library, while welcoming volunteer applicants, cannot guarantee that every applicant will be added to the volunteer team.
2. Volunteers are recognized by the public as representatives of the library and shall be guided by the "Volunteer Work and Behavior Code."
3. The library provides third-party liability insurance for volunteers and the public but does not insure volunteers for injuries incurred while volunteering at the library.
